Before we delve into the greatness of this first product which has earned it the spot of the best pick, note that it is a CET enzymatic toothpaste, which makes it already on a level of its own. The presence of this enzyme in Virbac CET enzymatic toothpaste fights against and eventually prevents the formation of plaque extensively. This will leave your pet with the freshest of breath and lead to the elimination of mouth odor as a whole.

In addition to all this, the toothpaste which is manufactured by Virbac is a double threat as it has earned itself the title of one of the best toothpaste for cats and dogs. Its unique and delicious formula make it palatable to your pet so that you do not have to worry about them being opposed to the taste as a whole. More along the lines of the taste of this stellar product, it comes in five flavors that your furry little friend will find simply irresistible; there is poultry, malt, beef, seafood, and vanilla-mint. This is for pet use only and should also be used under the directives of a qualified veterinarian.

This next enzymatic cat toothpaste has all the makings of a great dental product and did not make it onto this list of best cat toothpaste by chance. This highly affordable product is not only efficient but user-friendly as well, to corroborate this is the fact that it comes with a finger toothbrush which is great when it comes to facilitating the removal of plaque as well as food remnants in addition to massaging the gums as gently as possible. How does this particular toothbrush stand out? For one, it was actually thought out and developed by a veterinarian, so you best believe that it is the real deal. The fact that the added toothbrush is not abrasive makes it one of the most suitable options to be used on kittens. Enough about the amazing toothbrush addition, let us get to know more about this toothpaste and how efficient it is as a whole.

Sentry Petrodex Dental Kit contains a hydrogen peroxide-producing enzymatic formula which aids in its overall actions but most especially helps to reduce plaque and tartar and as an extra guarantee of your furry little companion's safety as a whole this cat toothpaste does not foam up at all and in turn does not need to be rinsed out. Here we are emphasizing on rinsing out when the issue of the cat liking the flavor of the toothpaste is just as important, the fact that this comes in a delicious malt flavor makes it easily acceptable by your furry little companion. In addition to that, when ingested it causes no harm whatsoever to its user, this additionally makes it kitten and user-friendly as a whole.

Key Features:

- › Comes with toothbrush
- › Specifically formulated for cats
- › Does not foam and as such, there is no need to rinse
- › Combat plaque and tartar

The Oxyfresh pet dental gel toothpaste is definitely one of those products that are on a level of its own and definitely takes the term 'user-friendly' to a whole new level. The thing is that this product doubles as both a toothpaste as well as the more general pet dental care gel. This means that there is the dual option of either brushing it in like a traditional toothpaste or simply rubbing it on the gum line to achieve the same result; which is a plaque-free mouth and in extension, freshness of breath. To be frank, there is no actual brushing needed when it comes to this product and as such it is quite easy to use on both cats and dogs and despite the fact that it is so easy to apply and use Oxyfresh pet dental gel toothpaste in no way neglects its work. It does not just mask the smell but eliminates it at the source.

Its unique formula is a multifaceted as they come, not only does it eliminate mouth odors and make for clean teeth as a whole, it also combats and gets rid of plaque and tartar, makes for the fast healing of mouth and gum irritation and overall helps to reduce the presence of mouth diseases. To crown it all up, the manufacturers of this products managed to find a way to placate pets that are picky when it comes to a wide range of flavors; as this particular product is both odourless and tasteless with the added advantage of being produced void of any substances that are toxic or harmful to the environment (how much more your pet?)

Key Features:

- › It is odorless and tasteless
- › Can be used as both a traditional toothpaste and a soothing gel
- › Contains Oxygene for fresher breath
- › Can be used by both cats and dogs

This next top-notch product was specifically produced and scientifically fashioned to provide our furry little friends (or furless depending on their breed) with plaque and tartar free mouths with the freshest of breath and stellar dental hygiene in general. To do this, Bluestem oral care (for cats and dogs) boasts of being the only pet oral hygiene brand that contains coactive+ technology which is a compound scientifically developed to combat and facilitate the breakdown of biofilm, an enabler for harmful bacteria.

They developed this formula by undergoing a stream of tests carried out in labs located in North America and the proceedings and results of the tests and studies carried out are readily made available upon request. This fact alone should increase your faith in this product as a whole. If that was not enough, then look at the fact that this brand of toothpaste is one of the safest bets on the market as all the food grade ingredients contained in it are certified xylitol free, alcohol-free, chlorhexidine-free and also sugar-free. In addition to that, they do not contain products that are detrimental to the general health of your pet such as surfactants or detergents. To crown it all, this chicken flavored dog and cat toothpaste comes fitted with a dual head toothbrush that is just as great a product as the toothpaste itself. This add-on allows for you to access both the inside and the outside of your pet's teeth at the same time without causing any unwarranted discomfort. This is definitely a product to try out if you are in the market for the best cat toothpaste.

For those of you that are avid fans of CET toothpaste, here is another product fashioned solely for you. Paws and Pals pet toothpaste does not only combat oral hygiene issues such as tooth decay, mouth odor, tartar infestation, plaque as well as gum diseases, it also offers up non-stop protection for your pet's teeth as a whole. Though it is made of a powerful cleaning formula, it is delicate when used for the oral hygiene of your feline or canine companion making it easier to restore their teeth to what they used to be before all the harmful bacteria crept in. It does all this while offering up a delicious beef flavor that will entice your pet to the point of having them look forward to the usually tedious process of having their teeth brushed. Worry not, because this actually ends up cleaning their teeth and freshening their breath up.

The wonderful thing about this CET toothpaste is that it gives you and your pet's dentist the shared responsibility of taking care of their oral hygiene. With the included toothbrush you can take the proper steps to ensure that your cat or dog sports a clean mouth while awaiting the periodical cleanings administered on them at the vets. There really is no downside to this Veterinarian approved product as it is as easy to use as well as user-friendly, your pet's continual fresh breath and clean mouth will be all the thank you that you need.

Best Cat Toothpaste Buying Guide and FAQ

Things to Consider When Buying Cat Toothpaste

- Brand

The brand of a product really does make a difference, there are a number of companies and organizations out there that are well-known for getting it right when it comes to cat toothpaste. As a pet owner, it is wise to do your research and find out which companies out there put out stellar products. This is no issue to gamble with, more so because it involves the health of your beloved pet, as such endeavor to opt for brand names that are already known as the forerunners and dispensers of quality dental hygiene products as a whole.

- Reviews

This is a sure way to get the inside scoop on which products are the best because as far as the manufacturers of these products are concerned, they have to say great things about the item they are putting out on the market, they need to drive sales and not just break even but come out with a profit. As much as some of them do live up to the standards set by themselves, the best way to find out the truth without experimenting is to read the reviews and find out what other users experienced when they used the same product.

- Ingredients

As sure as every human is different, best believe that every cat is different. As cat owners to an extent, you should know what is harmful and what is beneficial to the health of your pet. Seeing as this is a product that will regularly be ingested by your cat, it is wise to literally read in between the lines. Be sure to check if there are any ingredients that are harmful to cats as a whole or just your feline companion in particular. This way you do not end up making a purchase that ends up causing your cat more harm than good.

- Professional recommendation

If this list was arranged in order of importance this definitely would have made it to the top of the list. It is very paramount to the oral health of your cat to check with a vet before opting for this product. As you may have noticed already, there are quite a few of them out there on the market and some perform better than others. As such, it would be wise to check with your vet so as to get a particular product that is best suited for whatever is ailing your feline companion.

Your cat

This may seem like an odd factor to consider, but come to think of it, this product is actually for your cat so why not consider them, their needs and behavior when picking out a product as vital as this. For instance, if you know that your feline companion is one to be fussy when it comes to sticking things in its mouth then it would be wise to opt for brands that do not involve any actual brushing. If you study and understand the habits of your cat, then the process of caring for their teeth will go as smoothly as possible.

Why Does My Cat Need Toothpaste?

Veterinarians have been very clear on the issue, cats do need to use toothpaste, whether you are aware of it or not, cats are not meant to have stinky breath and they battle with a whole range of mouth illnesses that the layman is unaware of. Some of the food formulated for them these days is doing more harm than good to their oral hygiene as a whole and since we cannot have domesticated cats running around the neighborhood hunting for live prey it is wise to combat this harm with toothpaste.

Types of Cat Toothpaste

- Enzymatic toothpaste

This form of cat toothpaste contains enzymes that are responsible for tackling most areas of oral hygiene problems, these enzymes are incorporated in such a way that they can be ingested by cats.

- CET enzymatic toothpaste

This particular type of cat toothpaste works mainly with the use of two enzymes which are glucose oxidase and lactoperoxidase which act as natural antibacterial and in turn neutralize mouth odor. They are also quite tasty and usually come in a number of flavors.

- Toothbrush and toothpaste set

This is probably the most straightforward of them all as it is basically what it says it is, a cat toothpaste that comes with an accompanying toothbrush. Most times, these are the best brushes to use for your cat.

Best Cat Toothpaste FAQ:

Q: What is cat toothpaste?

A: This is toothpaste that is specifically formulated and produced to be used by cats.

Q: Which cat toothpaste ingredients are safe?

A: Ingredients such as natural zinc, vitamin C, glycerine, ethanol, dicalcium phosphate, xanthan gum, silica and potassium sorbate are considered safe.

Q: Can I use human toothpaste for cats?
